Why?

Austin ISD is celebrating Cesar Chavez / Dolores Huerta Day March 29. In the next few slides, you will learn more about them and their impact on our world.

Brought to you in partnership with our Green Ag program

WHO WERE CESAR CHAVEZ AND DOLORES HUERTA?

Who was Cesar Chavez?

Caesar Chavez was a Mexican American civil rights leader who advocated for better rights and treatment of migrant farm workers and laborers.

He also founded the National Farm Workers Association and worked to raise pay for farmers across the country.

Who was Dolores Huerta?

Dolores Huerta was one of the most influential labor activists of the 20th century. She helped organize many labor movements and strikes advocating for equal workers rights. She worked with workers of different ethnicities to raise awareness for workers abuse and unfair pay.
